The Neo Sectional frame is constructed with a durable steel-reinforced laminated wood frame and has a steel-spring suspension system adapted from the automotive industry, which provides maximum support and comfort while occupying minimal space.

The imported European seat and back cushions have been carefully selected for durability, firmness and comfort. Seat cushions are made of CFC-free polyurethane, softened by a continuous Dacron® wrap. Back cushions are baffled for even distribution and to prevent shifting of feathers and batting, thereby providing better lumbar support.

Covers come in a wide selection of specially sourced fabrics and leathers. The fabric covers are removable for cleaning or replacement, where as the leather covers are upholstered on. Selections are shipped as two separate pieces and are bolted together from the underside and must be ordered as a pair. The sectional is available with the chaise on the left or right.
