The Terho lamps are designed by the Finish designer Maija Puoskari. In finish Terho means acorn and the name refer to the natural and sympathetic shapes of acorns found in nature. The special color of alder wood and the opal made of white mouth blown glass is a unique combination of glass and wood only seen in lamps designs on rare occasions. The Terho lamps can be used individually or as a combination of different sizes in a small group. Terho is a very special lamp designed for homes and public spaces.
