

DESIGNER
ANDERS HERMANSEN
(1960)

Anders Hermansen graduated from The Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts in 1982, mastering industrial design and furniture architecture. As a recent graduate, he began working for Danish design companies such as Louis Poulsen, Paustian and Bang & Olufsen.

Significant for Hermansen is his unique handmade wire sketch furniture.

JOINT

Anders Hermansen designed the JOINT series for Engelbrechts in 2012. The series consist of elegant chairs and tables, complimenting each other in form and expression. JOINT is characterized by the use of exclusive materials, especially aluminium, which is reflected in the chairs as well as the tables.

JOINT is perfect for the executive office and the elegant meeting- or conference room.

Choose a chair to fit the specific needs. On wheels or gliders. With or without armrests. Or with tilt to ensure flexible seating comfort.
