CORE TABLE LAMP

The Core Table Lamp exudes honesty with its rough surfaces and bold contemporary form. Its precise production is coupled with a raw Lundhs Blue composition, as its crystals shimmer and dance under the illuminated light to display a life all of its own. Appearing as if cut directly from the earth, the Core Table Lamp brings a refined slice of Norway's rugged landscape into the home.

About the designer Runa Klock

Brought up on Norway's rugged western coast, Runa Klock's work is often inspired by nature, and influenced by a strong fascination in materials and craft. Runa's work is characterized by experiments and collaborations across a variety of disciplines; her practice extends beyond product design to encompass food, spaces and engaging in many interdisciplinary projects.
