Kanso – a Zen approach that views simplicity as the heart of enlightened living, and the grace and beauty that emerge when clutter fades away.

An understated, even austere, metal frame (in Fig Purple or Black) bears the trays, made from black-stained ash wood. Easy to fit together, adapt and transform, the KANSO COFFEE TABLE is an elegant study in sculptural form and no-nonsense function. It works as a stand-alone assemblage, either as a practical and versatile side table or as a focus and centrepiece for the living room.

Uncomplicated and minimalist, the effortlessness of Laura Bilde's finished pieces is testimony to the precision, passion and hard work that imbues them.
