

A photograph of a modern living room. In the center is a mustard yellow sofa with a grey textured pillow and a green blanket. In front of it are two round coffee tables with black wire bases, one light wood and one red. To the left is a large window with a brass pendant lamp hanging from it. To the right is a tall bookshelf. The room has a warm, minimalist aesthetic.

spectrum

BR 12 sofa bed
Martin Visser - 1960 | Spectrum - 2012

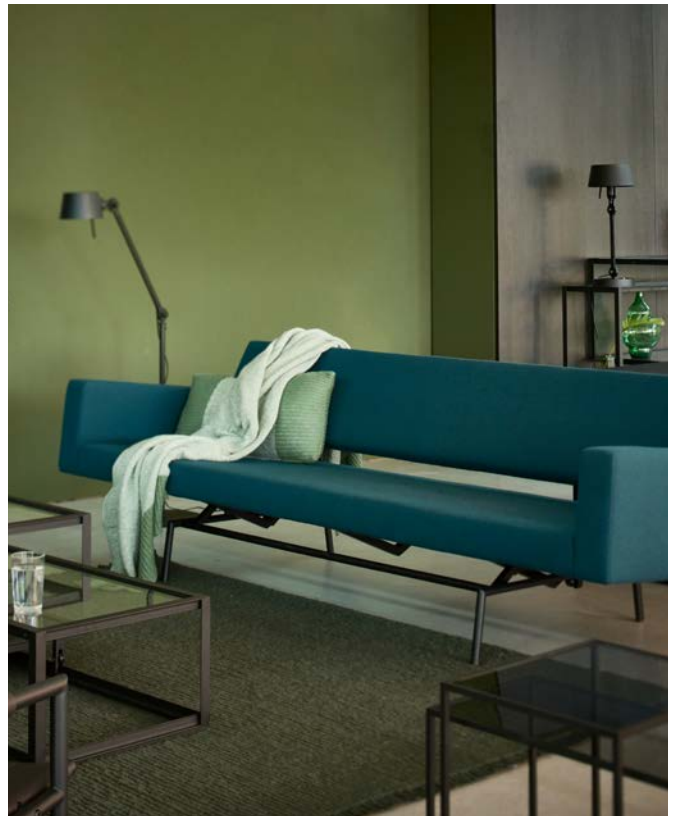

BR 12 sofa bed

Martin Visser - 1960 | Spectrum - 2012

Dimensions:

212 x 82 x 70 cm WxDxH / seat 40 cm (arms 2x10 cm)

Frame:

Round tube, brushed chromed metal or powdercoated black.

Upholstery:

Every possible fabric (preferably wool for maintenance of the sharp edges) or leather.

Based on Visser's design BR 43, a sofa bed with 2 fixed arms and a clear sixties signature, Spectrum expanded the collection with sofa BR 12 in 2012. A strong and classic base with 2 arms that still offers the possibility to turn the sofa into a daybed; the available space between the arms is 192 cm.